

The Rotary Club of Daniel Island, SC

Guidelines for grant applicants

The Rotary Club of Daniel Island Foundation (the RCDIF) is a charitable grant-making fund organized by the Rotary Club of Daniel Island in Charleston, S.C., that is used exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code").

Purpose

The RCDIF makes contributions primarily to support local community needs, although the fund's granting authority is flexible enough to support other projects deemed by the Fund's board to qualify for charitable, educational or other philanthropic purposes.

Grants disbursed by the RCDIF are primarily targeted for unique or non-recurring needs, as outlined below. Grants are for specific short-term projects, one-time events or one-time needs. Grants, awarded with the scope of the purposes of section 501(c)(3) of the Code, are not awarded to organizations for multiple or successive years. Grants will not be awarded for general operating needs of an organization.

There are two categories of grants, Beneficiary grants (awarded annually) and Off-Cycle grants. Beneficiary grants are selected and announced prior to the Charleston Charity Duck Race sponsored by the RCDI and affiliated local Rotary Clubs. Off-Cycle grants, typically lower in value than Beneficiary grants, may be awarded at any time during the year based on the same criteria and availability of funds.

Grant eligibility

To receive a grant from the RCDIF, organizations must meet the following requirements.

1. Nonprofit organization. The grantee organization must be:
  - a. A non-profit organization in compliance with Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or

- b. If the grantee is not a non-profit organization as describe above, the RCDIF board shall exercise due diligence in determining eligibility for any grant.
2. Proximity. Grant applications should focus on projects that are primarily within the Daniel Island and Cainhoy/Huger area of Berkeley County. However, we will consider projects consistent with our areas of Service Focus that are delivered in the Greater Charleston and Berkeley County Geographic areas.
3. Type of projects. When applying for RCDIF funding, it is important for organizations to understand that the RCDIF does not normally fund multi-year projects, recurring needs, operating expenses, or annual budget items. It focuses on specific, one-year unique or non-recurring needs that support priorities of the Rotary Club of Daniel Island. Ideally, the grant should cover all or most of the cost of the proposed activity. This helps the RCDIF Committee distinguish an eligible request from a non-eligible request for operational funds. Funded projects generally fall into, but are not limited to six Service Focus areas:
  - a. Hunger & Nutrition
  - b. Housing & Shelter
  - c. Literacy and Education
  - d. Children and Families
  - e. Health and Wellness, and
  - f. Building Better Communities
4. Single year grants. While charities may apply for grants in successive years, the awarding of a grant in one year will not increase the likelihood of award of a grant in the following year. Each grant cycle stands on its own, considering the number, quality, and diversity of applications.
5. Grant amount. Generally, the RCDIF considers requests for grants from $250.00 to $5,000.00, with Beneficiary grants being typically $2,000 to $5,000, and Off-Cycle grants being under $1,500.

Grant selection and disbursement process

The RCDIF uses the following process to award grants to qualified nonprofit organizations:

1. Advisory committee. As related under the provisions of the by-laws of the RCDIF, the Beneficiary Committee will accept, consider and make recommendations to the RCDIF board on grant applications received on a periodic basis, as outlined below.

2. Grant pool. At the beginning of each fiscal year, the Committee will receive information from the RCDIF's board about the amount of money expected to be released for grants for that fiscal year.

3. Grant approval cycle.

- a. Beneficiary grants: The Committee will accept, review and make recommendations for Beneficiary Grants once a year. Applications must be received by October 31st for grants to be awarded in August of the following year.
- b. Off Cycle grants: Off-Cycle grant applications can be accepted at any time during the year, with awards made on the basis of timeliness and availability of funds.

The Beneficiary Committee, which is responsible for approving or denying grant requests, will consider, review and make recommendations to the RCDI board for both categories of grants as necessary.

4. RCDI board approval. After receiving the Committee's recommendation, the RCDIF board then will make final decisions regarding grant awards. Once approved, the RCDIF will notify successful grant recipients and those organizations whose applications have been denied.
